

Pneumatic Hammer

YT-09903

The hammer is designed for disconnection works with the use of chisels, chippers and punches of elements connected with the use of heat sealing and riveting methods. Enables cutting, chiselling and punching of metal and sheet metals in panel and paint shops, automotive service workshops, manufacturing facilities and in DIY applications.

0.63
MPa

T 3500
min⁻¹

85
l/min

- robust aluminium body
- spring protecting the chisel from disconnecting
- percussion frequency 3,500 strokes/min caters for rapid work progress
- air consumption: 85 l/min
- ergonomic design and low weight of 1.7 kg provide for comfortable work
- standard connection
- the set includes: 2 chisels

